Day-Old Child is a beautifully illustrated popular poem about that tender moment when a parent looks into their baby's eyes for the first time.

Carol Lynn Pearson's words capture the love felt with the first touch of baby's soft cheek, the first snuggle, and the first counting of toes. She articulates the hopes and dreams of new parents for their child, and reminds us of our closeness to God, whether we have been around for a while or are brand new to the world.

This is the perfect gift book for new parents from all walks of life.

"I've a hundred wonderful things to say—"

(A tiny cough and a nod)

"Hurry, hurry, hurry and grow-"

"So I can tell you about God."
